

Michael Lloyd
Director of Campus Support Services
University of North Carolina Wilmington
Wilmington, North Carolina

Mike Lloyd is Director of Campus Support Services at the University of North Carolina Wilmington. Mike has 30 plus years of operations management experience. Mike has completed the “Certified Public Manager Program”, “Executive Mail Center Manager Program”, and the “Mail Quality Certification Program”. He currently oversees the universities central receiving, recycling program, surplus program & store, vending operation, hospitality properties and postal services which consists of a USPS contract station, student mail services section, standard mail services, passport acceptance agency, and departmental mail services. Mike also oversee a full service print shop, student copy center, departmental and student copier program.

As Director of Campus Support Services Mike has developed programs, training sections, and built a network of clients that have enabled him to generate countless cost saving opportunities for the university. He has integrated computerized systems that have enabled his operations to keep abreast of changes in an ever growing industry.

Throughout his career Mike has been recognizes on many occasions for outstanding service and innovation. Mike Lloyd has also had the opportunity to leave his mark in a variety of community service organizations. He is a recipient of the “Governor’s Award of Excellence” and the “University Award of Excellence” for contributions to the community. Mike leads by example. He is a mentor, a youth coach, and a recipient of the Boys and Girls Club of America Volunteer of the Year award.